

I am a no code technician but I believe that the current structure still serves us the best please keep the 5wpm requirement for the general license class and the current HF privledges.